

BREAKING NEWS

SCAUF
COMMUNICATIONS

VOICE. JUSTICE. FREEDOM. PEACE.

ARCHBISHOP NKEA SAYS 'AMBAZONIANS' ARE READY TO NEGOTIATE

Archbishop Andrew Nkea of Bamenda says many Ambazonians, both at home and abroad, are open to dialogue and are increasingly tired of the conflict. He says the Catholic Church is working to bring the parties together and believes meaningful dialogue remains the only path to a lasting settlement.

He added that the Pope's visit to Cameroon renewed hope for peace and contributed to a rare ceasefire.

 Source: Under The Baobab

SCAUF Message:
Ambazonians have been ready since 2017.
Is Yaoundé ready to negotiate?

